Mackin Council Ready to Welcome Public in the New Club House.

Success of Bazar and Reception to Supreme President W. M. Fogarty Assured.

Joint Meeting of All Councils Tuesday Night at Trinity Hall.

NOTICE FROM SUPREME SECRETARY

The Ways and Means Committee of Mackin Council are putting the finishing touches on the new $10,000 club house on Twenty-sixth street, which will be thrown open to the public next Thursday night with a bazar and reception to the Supreme President of the Young Men's Institute, William M. Fogarty, City Clerk of Indianapolis. Mackin's new home is indeed a beauty and is worthy of the Catholic young men of the West End, who are about to realize the fruition of years of earnest labor. Mayor Charles F. Granger, Judge Matt O'Doherty and Hon. Edward J. McDermott have been invited to attend the opening exercises and deliver short addresses. Unity Council, of New Albany, and Satoli and Trinity Councils, of this city, will visit the affair in a body, and the largest gathering ever witnessed in the West End may be looked for. There are eight committees working for the bazar, and judged from the reports received Tuesday night its success is already assured.

At the meeting of Trinity Council on Monday night it was announced that the joint meeting of the Louisville councils in honor of the Supreme President would be held next Tuesday night at Trinity's Hall on East Gray street. Trinity has prepared a rousing reception for the visitors. This meeting will be under the supervision of the Joint Committee, who hope to see the large hall crowded to the doors. The members are also said to be arranging for a big turn-out for the visit to Mackin Council.

Satoli Council will honor the visiting Supreme President with a banquet on Wednesday and will show him the principal points of interest in Louisville and its suburbs. There was much enthusiasm manifested at the meeting held Monday night, and it was said that every member would be at Mackin's bazar.

There was a large gathering Tuesday night at St. Cecilia's Hall to hear reports and work for Mackin Council's welfare. President Shelley was in Cincinnati and the chair was occupied by Fred Herp. Leonard Wessel and Martin Robinson were elected members and applications received from R. L. Fisher and John Nolan. The reports of all the committees were very satisfactory concerning the opening and bazar next week. It was voted to hold the regular meeting on Monday night, and on Tuesday evening all will assemble at the hall and proceed in a body to the joint meeting at Trinity Hall.

The Kentucky Irish American has received the following communication and request from Supreme Secretary O'Brien: I am in receipt of the following official order No. 1 from our worthy Supreme President, also with the instructions that I communicate same to you at once and request that you have the several councils in your jurisdiction put same in force as early as you possibly can:

As the Supreme President of the Young Men's Institute I herewith communicate to you the request that, in token of our esteem for the beloved memory of the late lamented Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, who until the fifth Supreme Council of the Institute had been our Supreme Chaplain for four years, you wear in the lapel of your coats a small purple ribbon for the period of thirty days, or until the third day of December, 1904.

To All Officers and Members of the Young Men's Institute—Fraternal Greetings: Herewith you will find the name and address of all of the Supreme officers elected at the last Supreme Council held at Colorado Springs, Colo., October 10, 11 and 12, 1904:

Chaplain—Most Rev. D. D. O'Donoghue, Indianapolis.

President—William M. Fogarty, City Clerk, Indianapolis.

First Vice-President—Samuel Haskins, Custom House, San Francisco.

Second Vice-President—J. Bunnet Sullivan, Jermyn, Pa.

Secretary—James M. O'Brien, Box 374, Roanoke, Va.

Treasurer—D. J. Cullinan, 202 Main Street, Pittsburgh.

Board of Supreme Directors—P. H. Keefe, Chairman, Sharpsburg, Pa.; William M. Fogarty, Indianapolis; L. E. Mahn, Eureka, Cal.; P. J. Stanton, Frostburg, Md.; John J. Barry, New Haven, Ky.; William H. Weber, Walla Walla, Wash.; John W. Whelan, 510 Charleston street, Mobile, Ala.

I am instructed by the Supreme Council to prepare a national directory of the Y. M. I., showing the name of the council, its number, where located in the city, the names and addresses of their President, Secretary and Treasurer. This directory will be published in neat pocket size, and will be a great benefit to all brothers traveling; and in order to make it complete and of service I will have the same issued immediately after the beginning of the year, or as soon as the names of the new officers are furnished me by the several councils. I therefore ask that all councils be as prompt as possible in sending me the information herein outlined. I will send the proper blanks during the month of December. Fraternally yours,

JAMES M. O'BRIEN,
Supreme Secretary.

SACRED HEART CHURCH

Will Be Consecrated by Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey in December.

Last Sunday at all the masses in the Sacred Heart church the pastor, Rev. Patrick Walsh, made the welcome announcement that that beautiful church edifice would be consecrated by the Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey during the month of December. Father Walsh and his flock have labored hard to free their church from debt, and consequently there is great rejoicing over the fact that it will be consecrated during the present jubilee year. As the arrangements are completed they will be made known in these columns.

In preparation for the joyful occasion a mission will be held at the Sacred Heart church the last week of this month, when all the parishioners are expected to approach the holy sacrament in thanksgiving for the many blessings that have been bestowed on them. The mission will be conducted by priests noted for both their eloquence and learning.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

Kentucky's State President Made Member of National Organization.

Dr. Francis S. Clark, State President of the Kentucky Federation of Catholic Societies, this week received a letter from Secretary Anthony Matre informing him that he had been made a member of the national organization. Dr. Clark was recommended for the honor by the highest authorities and has accepted the position. In the near future President Clark will visit all local clergy for the purpose of interesting them and their parishes in the federation movement.

Upon the announcement of the death of Archbishop Elder the officers of the State and County Federation met in this city and adopted appropriate resolutions, which were forwarded to Archbishop Henry Moeller, who made the following acknowledgement:

"The resolutions adopted by the Kentucky Federation of Catholic Societies were received. I thank you, the committee and the members of the Federation for the expression of esteem and sympathy contained therein. May God bless you."

Thursday night the regular monthly meeting of the Jefferson Federation was held at Hibernian Hall. Encouraging reports were read by Secretary Conney and a number of societies gave notice that they would soon be represented.

LOVELY LIFE CLOSED.

The entire Catholic community was thrown into deepest grief Friday night of last week by the announcement of the death of Mrs. Catherine E. Byrne, beloved wife of John P. Byrne, at the family residence, 914 West Chestnut street, after a very short illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Byrne was one of those pioneers of the faith whose edifying lives and supernatural virtues make them shine as stars, no matter where their lot in life may be cast. She was a native of that holy island from whose bosom have gone forth so many generations of saintly sons and virtuous daughters, whose lives were modeled upon the holy faith which St. Patrick implanted in the hearts of the primitive people of Ireland. Born there sixty-eight years ago, she arrived in the United States when but a girl, and locating in Louisville she afterward married John P. Byrne, who with two daughters, Mrs. B. J. Jansen and Mrs. J. H. Buschmeyer, survive her. Our Heavenly Father has promised a long life and a happy death to those who serve him faithfully in this life, and the deceased was the recipient of both these rewards from Him who has given His beloved rest, as she loved her faith dearly and practiced it with the fidelity of a soul sanctified. The funeral took place Monday morning from the Cathedral and was one of the largest seen there for years.

ACTIVE DEBT PAVERS.

On Monday evening the St. Louis Bertrand Debt Paying Association had a very interesting meeting. President Cassidy presided. Rev. Father Volz, who was present, thanked the gentlemen for the active work done in this regard and spoke words of encouragement for the future. Methods of reaching new contributors, as well as of again interesting old contributors, were discussed. The reports were well up to the standard. Some of the collectors had to complain of the actions of a few, who constantly put the collectors off with some trivial excuse, thinking nothing of the trouble they put these gentlemen to in the end of the confusion they cause in the records of the society by such dilatory tactics. If some of these parties could see themselves as others see them they would soon mend their ways.

TRIBUTE

Paid Late Most Rev. William Henry Elder, Archbishop of Cincinnati.

His Funeral Was the Most Impressive Ever Held in This Country.

The Cardinal, Archbishops and Hundreds of Bishops and Priests Present.

RT. REV. BISHOP McCLOSKEY ASSISTED

The funeral of the most Rev. William Henry Elder, Archbishop of Cincinnati, which took place from St. Peter's Cathedral in the city named on Tuesday, was the most impressive ceremony ever held in the State of Ohio or probably in America. From all parts of the United States were assembled the leading dignitaries of the church, both young and old. The Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, William George McCloskey, D. D., was present, and assisted in the solemn mass of requiem. Since the death of the venerable Archbishop, Dr. McCloskey is the oldest Bishop in the United States. Cardinal Gibbons and all the Archbishops were in attendance.

The scene at the Cathedral was impressive beyond description. Long before the hour fixed for the solemn services to begin thousands of people filled the streets surrounding the Cathedral. They came from all parts of Ohio and from Kentucky as well as from Cincinnati. When the doors of the great Cathedral were opened those who had cards were admitted and this immense auditorium was at once filled. Thousands were unable to gain admission, but waited patiently outside, and when the mass was over followed the remains to the cemetery.

The scene in the sanctuary was the most impressive sight of all. All of the clergy wore black vestments except Cardinal Gibbons. There were fully 500 Bishops and priests in the sanctuary and at the altar railing. The high mass of requiem was sung by Archbishop Moeller, the successor of Archbishop Elder. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Dr. Schoenhof, V. G., the Rev. August Quatman and Rev. William Hickey. At the conclusion of the mass the Most Rev. John J. Keane, Archbishop of Dubuque, preached the funeral sermon. Archbishop Keane is one of the finest orators among the Catholic dignitaries of America. His tribute to the venerable Archbishop was a classic. He spoke for an hour. We regret that space forbids the publication of this great funeral sermon.

Following the sermon there were five solemn absolutions given by Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ryan, Bishops Maes, Heslin and Allen, each attended by two chaplains.

All the Catholic church bells in Cincinnati tolled while the funeral procession moved from the Cathedral to the cemetery. The funeral cortege was several miles long, and in it were some of the most distinguished men in Ohio as well as many of the humblest laborers in Cincinnati. Never before in Cincinnati was there such a tribute paid to a citizen as was paid to the dead Archbishop. All classes turned out, even though it was election day.

At the grave the final services were conducted by Archbishop Moeller, assisted by Fathers Neu and Dutton. Rev. Father Ackerman, Mrs. Phil Ackerman, Sr., Mrs. Thomas Cody and Miss Mamie Ackerman were among the number from this city who witnessed the solemn obsequies in the Cathedral. They say it would be impossible to give even a faint idea of the solemnity of the services or the respect and sorrow everywhere manifest for the deceased Archbishop.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES

Celebrate Fourteenth Anniversary and Outline Future Work.

There was a large and happy gathering Wednesday night at Marker's Hall to celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of Branch 2 of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America. And to the officers and members it was especially gratifying to see so many visitors and well wishers present, nearly every branch in Louisville being represented. President Patrick Holley presided and expressed himself highly pleased to welcome so many ladies and gentlemen. In a few well chosen words he reviewed the history of Branch 2 during the fourteen years of its existence. There were now about 400 members, who would be surprised did they realize what had been accomplished by them since the beginning of their organization. Its great success, President Holley said, must be attributed to their good members, the women, who have built this and all other branches, and without whose co-operation the Catholic Knights and Ladies could have done nothing. Every Catholic man and woman, he declared, should be insured, and it was the duty of members to in-known the benefits of membership in this grand order, which had issued only one extra assessment in the entire fourteen years. He then read a communication from Supreme President Kelly, who suggested the formation of a central advisory board in Louisville. President Kelly appealed to the women, who could advise the order and bring the membership up to 5,000 in this city. The suggestions met with hearty approval, and before the adjournment arrangements were made for a meeting next Wednesday night at the office of Attorney Newton G. Rogers, when the board will be organized.

Miss Mary Sheridan reported two applications and three candidates awaiting initiation. Reports coming to her showed new branches being instituted and the membership increasing everywhere, especially in the West. She well remembered when she could stand at St. Patrick's church and call all the members together. Now they were away up in the thousands and were scattered over fourteen States of the Union. She urged the formation of an advisory board that Louisville and Kentucky may continue in the lead.

Newton G. Rogers pointed to the monuments of Catholic fraternity and charity reared by the C. K. and L. of A. After some good advice and a practical business talk he congratulated the branch on its success.

Dr. Peter Ganz was indeed glad to see the backbone and spirit exhibited by Supreme President Kelly and the active interest he is arousing to increase the membership. Dr. Ganz asked each individual to bring in one new member during the year. Members should better inform themselves about their order by holding quarterly general meetings and by paring themselves to become its agents.

Miss Rena Weisenberg aroused much enthusiasm and offered her services. Advisory boards in other cities, she said, were doing splendid work, and the same would result here if properly organized.

Messrs. Thomas Keenan, William M. Higgins, James Coleman, Patrick Sullivan, Hickenbeck and Smith were called upon and responded with remarks appropriate to the occasion, after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the branch.

Not the least pleasing feature of the meeting was the presence of so many of the founders of the society, which they believe, in the words of Secretary Coleman, is the cheapest and safest fraternal insurance society in this country. It was indeed a happy and successful anniversary, and on every side the hope was expressed that the present might live to enjoy together many more such.

JOSEPH MURPHY.

Great Irish Actor to Appear at Masonic Theater Next Week.

The coming of Joseph Murphy to the Masonic Theater in "Kerry Gow" and "Shannon Rhue" next week will be hailed with delight by those who enjoy a wholesome Irish play by an actor who knows how to depict true Irish character. The performance of either "Kerry Gow" or "Shannon Rhue" will give the keenest pleasure to those who have been going to the modern plays and to the cheap wares dubbed Irish. Joe Murphy is an actor of merit, else he could not have maintained his high place on the American stage during the past quarter of a century. He has been in Louisville before and never failed to draw big houses. He is a true blue Irishman, a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and other Irish societies and never fails to draw big houses every night in the week in cities where Irish live, and there are over 50,000 of them in Louisville. As Dan O'Hara in "Kerry Gow" Mr. Murphy is at his best. The company supporting him is made up of actors of Irish names and who speak with an Irish accent.

Of course Mr. Murphy will have large audiences every night during his appearance here. He is a favorite among the old-time theater-goers whether they be Irish or not. Those who have never witnessed the performance of "Kerry Gow" or "Shannon Rhue" should not miss going to the Masonic next week.

UNDER COVER.

Contractors have begun work on the roof of the new St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville and are now placing the timbers in position. It is hoped to have the handsome structure soon under cover and that work on the interior may be pushed during the winter months. The new edifice will cost $35,000, and when finished it will be the most beautiful in

GROWING

In Membership and Influence Are the Knights of Columbus.

Louisville Council Will Soon Have a Roster of 500.

Tomorrow Week Forty-Five New Candidates Will Be Instituted.

A POPULAR CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION

On tomorrow week Louisville Council of the Knights of Columbus will have a general meeting for the purpose of instituting about forty-five new members. Previous to the ceremonies the members of the council will attend the holy mass. When this new membership is added the council will have about 500 members. The steady growth in membership and influence of the Knights of Columbus in this city is a source of gratification to Catholics generally. For a new organization the Knights of Columbus has made wonderful strides in the West and South, particularly during the past two years. The Louisville membership includes some of the leading Catholic business and professional men. The members not only take a live interest in Catholic affairs, but in everything that tends to the betterment of society and the welfare of the city. Regular meetings of the council are held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The election of officers takes place at the first meeting in December of each year. The annual dues are only $12, and membership is open to all Catholics, with but few restrictions. The present officers of Louisville Council are:

Grand Knight—Charles F. Taylor.
Deputy Grand Knight—Fred A. Bauer.
Chancellor—John A. Doyle.
Treasurer—Henry Paslick.
Financial Secretary and Recorder—J. J. Flynn.

Chaplain—Rev. Leo Greulich, of St. Anthony's church.
Lecturer—P. H. Callahan.
Advocate—Joseph E. Conkling.
Warden—John M. Mulloy.
Inside Guard—Elmer Watson.
Outside Guard—Thomas S. Evans.
Medical Examiner—Dr. W. B. Doherty.
Past Grand Knights—M. J. Winn, R. A. Watson, Charles J. O'Connor, P. M. O'Reilly.
State Deputy Supreme Knight—Robert A. Watson.

Past State Deputy—Chas. J. O'Connor. The Board of Trustees is composed of Dr. John A. Ouchterlony, M. J. Duffy and Henry Thiemann.

Interest in the Knights of Columbus in the Far West is on the increase and new councils are now being instituted in many of the smaller cities. Denver Council, it is said, will in the near future begin the erection of a $50,000 structure for their own use. An excellent start has already been made, and the committee in charge feel certain that everything will work according to the plans arranged. And in Louisville the Knights, who number about 250, have purchased their own hall at a cost of $16,000 and have paid for the same.

The proposition to erect or purchase a building for the order in Louisville has been discussed, but thus far no definite action has been taken. If Louisville Council decides to have a building of its own it is safe to say it will be one worthy the order.

YOUNG FATHER BRADY

Receives a Hearty Welcome From People of St. Cecilia's Parish.

There was much rejoicing throughout St. Cecilia's parish last Sunday, when the Rev. Father A. F. P. Brady celebrated his first mass as assistant pastor of that flourishing congregation. The young priest, who was only recently ordained, is a nephew of the beloved rector, Rev. A. J. Brady. During his visits while studying for the priesthood he made many friends among the Catholics of the West End, especially the younger element, with whom he will become extremely popular. For some time past Father Brady was stationed at St. Vincent's in Union county, but on account of his ability and zeal it is thought Bishop McCloskey assigned him to the larger and more important field. He succeeds Rev. John Kalsheer, who is highly pleased with the hearty and cordial reception given him by the people of his new charge.

SATOLLI COUNCIL.

The meeting of Satoli Council this week was presided over by President Crotty with his usual grace, and was more interesting than usual. The application of Ollie Gore was received and referred to the proper committee. The report of the Joint Committee was listened to with interest, and the Satoli representatives were assured of the co-operation of the council next week in making the reception to Supreme President Fogarty a success. Arrangements were also completed for the banquet next Wednesday night. The report of the Executive Committee was read and showed the financial condition of Satoli Council to be steadily improving. A handsome Y. M. I. pin has been offered to the one securing the most new members between now and January 1, with the provision that at least five must be secured in order to compete for it. Members were selected to serve on the House Committee during the month of November, and James Perry was appointed custodian of the property of the council, in lieu of the Marshal, for whom an anxious inquiry is now being made. Perhaps certain young ladies might throw some light on that subject.

GRAND CHURCH BAZAR

For Thanksgiving Week With Drawings of Prizes Nightly.

The people of St. Frances of Rome church in Clifton have arranged a gala time for their friends for Thanksgiving week. With Father White at their head they will hold a grand bazar, opening Monday, November 21, and closing the following Saturday night, the proceeds of which will go toward paying for making Casewood street and the sidewalk. Each night there will be entertaining features and a drawing for prizes, in which all ticket holders will participate. The list of prizes includes a handsome chiffonier, the gift of Councilman Al. Smith, a fine water filter, fifty bushels of coal, household article, music cabinet, fancy chair, dozen cabinet photos, large ornamented cake, five-dollar gold piece, Irish sovereign, twelve cabinet photos and one hundred nickels, donated by Owen Keiran. There will be a number of pretty booths and refreshment tables, where the ladies will have a bountiful supply of everything good to eat. The bazar will be held in the school hall and will be found the right place to spend both a pleasant and profitable evening. Crescent Hill cars stop at the hall door.

SILVER WEDDING

John Hoffman and Wife Will Celebrate the Happy Occasion.

John Hoffman and wife, popular and highly esteemed German Catholic residents of the East End, plighted their troth in the old St. Boniface church, this city, on November 25, 1879, and the long interval of a quarter of a century has been happily spent in Louisville. Now with the evening of their days approaching they face the great beyond fearlessly and confident of that reward sure to be the portion of those whose lives have been full of well doing. It is therefore fitting that so joyful an event should be duly celebrated, and the occasion will indeed be a most happy one. On the morning of November 25 the worthy couple, surrounded by their many devoted friends and relatives, will participate in the holy mass to be offered up for their especial benefit at the new St. Boniface church by the Rev. Father Guido, O. S. F., who tomorrow will himself celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the holy priesthood. For each of the three there are only good wishes and the hope that they may enjoy a duplicate of the past twenty-five years. Mr. Hoffman and Father Guido are cousins.

PRAY FOR THE DEAD.

Holy and Wholesome Thought Carried Out by Thousands of Catholics Sunday.

On last Sunday thousands of persons visited the Catholic cemeteries to pray for the souls of the departed. Those who could not go on All Souls' day, November 2, performed the duty on the Sunday following. On account of the propitious weather the throngs at the cemeteries last Sunday were larger than usual.

At St. Michael's cemetery every year on the Sunday following All Souls' there are large crowds, but the throng last Sunday was a record breaker, more than 5,000 people assembling there and most of them assisted at the office of the dead, which was recited by Rev. Father Guido Stallo, of St. Boniface church. Previous to reciting the prayers a procession was formed and marched to the great cross in the center of the cemetery and all knelt in prayer.

The Scripture says it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead. This injunction is kept in mind by those who have loved ones buried in our Catholic cemeteries, and from year to year the crowds increase. The custom is a beautiful one and ought to be observed generally by Catholics.

GOES TO ST. JOHN'S.

The people of St. John's parish were much pleased this week when they learned that the Rev. George Cone had been appointed assistant priest to the Very Rev. Father Bax. Father Cone is one of the younger priests in this diocese, and was for awhile stationed at St. Patrick's. He is an earnest worker, an able speaker, and has been popular with the masses of the people. Our friends of St. John's have reason to congratulate themselves and thank the Bishop for his appointment.

CATHOLIC

College For Women to Be Opened in New York State.

To Be Conducted By the Ursuline Nuns at New Rochelle.

Will Be Founded on Liberal Basis, Non-Catholics to Be Admitted.

ALSO A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

The chartering of the College of St. Angela, the first and only Catholic college for women in New York State, was an event of great importance to the teachers of Greater New York. This college, which is situated in New Rochelle, is the result of the fruitful labors of the Ursuline nuns. Their seminary in New Rochelle has long been noted for the excellence of its instruction, says the New York Sun.

The college is founded on a liberal basis. While its primary object is to provide collegiate training for Catholic girls, those of other denominations are also welcomed. An important part of the policy of the college will be the offering to teachers of an opportunity to obtain a degree without sacrificing their profession. In this it follows Adelphi College in Brooklyn. In pursuance of this policy a two hour course will be given this winter in Manhattan at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Madison avenue.

The subject of the course will be "Contemporary Educational Problems." It will be given on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The hour on Tuesday will be devoted to a consideration of the history and principles of education. On Thursday evenings there will be a series of thirty lectures, delivered by the educational leaders of this city and its vicinity. They will discuss the live educational problems of the day. Every effort will be made to have these lectures given by men well known in the educational world. The presidents of neighboring colleges, the professors of education in neighboring institutions, the highest advisory officials in the city public school system, the principals of the city High Schools and men and women of equal reputation will be among the lecturers.

It is expected that Archbishop Farley will deliver the opening address and that Monsignor Lavelle, the distinguished ex-President of the Catholic summer school, will be the first lecturer. The course will be a three-fold value to the members of the teaching profession. In the first place it will be a culture course for teachers and will enable them to enjoy the rare opportunity of hearing the ablest educational men in this part of the country. In the second place it will count toward an A. B. degree at the College of St. Angela. In the third place it will be possible for teachers, by complying with certain examination requirements, to count it toward eligibility for candidacy for license No. 1 and for the head of department and principal's licenses. During the course many helpful suggestions will be given of value to candidates for places in city schools.

During successive years the city courses will be so planned that any teacher will be able to earn a degree without making the sacrifice necessitated by leaving her profession. The College of St. Angela is planning to do a great and noble work, both for its students and for members of the teaching profession. Just as soon as it is feasible the college will become a member of the Society College Entrance Board of the Middle States and Maryland. Every precaution will be taken to guard the value of its degree and to have the college maintain the standing of its predecessor, the Ursuline Seminary.

FEAST OF MUSIC.

The music loving people of Louisville will be delightfully entertained at the Masonic Theater on Sunday night, November 20, when the first grand concert of the Eichhorn-Kollros military band, mixed chorus and orchestra will be given. The programme is an artistic and meritorious one and equals any ever presented here. Messrs. Eichhorn and Kollros deserve encouragement in their effort to give Louisville a standard band and orchestra. The soloists, will be Mr. Mamie Becker, Mrs. Marguerite Swain, Charles Leizler and Constantine Leher.

CAN TRUST HIM.

Councilman Lawrence Ford, of Jeffersonville, left Thursday for Pittsburgh to be present at the meetings of the Grand Council of the several divisions of the Pennsylvania lines and the road officials, which will last all of next week. Larry has the confidence and respect of the men and their interests are safe in his hands.

MISSION AT ST. PATRICK'S.

At the high mass tomorrow night at St. Patrick's a mission will open to the people of that congregation and continue throughout the week. The morning and evening services will be held on week days, with sermon and benediction at the latter.

JUDGE O'DOHERTY'S ELECTION

The Kentucky Irish American desires to congratulate the people of Louisville and Jefferson county and the Democratic party on the election of Hon. Matt O'Doherty to a Judgeship in the Jefferson Circuit Court. There are several reasons why these felicitations should be extended by this paper. In the first place, the city and county secures an upright, honorable man and an able jurist for the position of Judge of Common Pleas Division No. 3. Judge O'Doherty is everything that a Judge should be, but high integrity is his chief characteristic. The corporations will not own him.

We desire to congratulate the Democratic party on the undivided support which was given Judge O'Doherty. He ran up well with his ticket in almost every voting precinct in the city and county. He received the earnest support of every precinct worker and of every man connected with the Democratic organization. There was a time when an Irishman and a Catholic could not receive the united support of the party organization. The election of Tuesday demonstrated that this old Know-Nothing A. P. A. feeling is gradually dying out. To be sure, there were some few who call themselves Democrats who voted against Judge O'Doherty because he is a Catholic and an Irishman, but these few bigots are of no consequence. If they ever get into Judge O'Doherty's court they will doubtless be converted by the fair treatment they will receive from a Catholic and an Irishman.

Judge O'Doherty is the first Irishman and Catholic ever elected to the Circuit bench in Louisville. We congratulate the people of Louisville on this tardy act of justice. Catholics and Irishmen were the first settlers of this city and county. They have been here for 100 years. There are probably 50,000 Catholics in Louisville today. They appreciate Judge O'Doherty's election, not that he is a Catholic, but on account of the good spirit which was shown at the polls last Tuesday. It leads them to feel that the spirit of intolerance which prevailed here at one time against Catholics has disappeared forever.

Judge O'Doherty, we predict, will prove worthy of the confidence reposed in him by the whole people and will be an ornament to the bench. We hope some day to see him sitting on the bench of the Court of Appeals.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Tuesday's election was a landslide for the Republicans, Roosevelt carrying everything before him. The President has many admirable traits, one being that he is no man's man and treats all men on an equal footing, whether they be Catholic, Protestant, Jew or Pagan, white or black. The President's announcement that he will not be a candidate for re-election may be taken as an indication that he will be the President of the whole people and not of any one party or faction. We wish the President all the success imaginable and hope his four year's term may redound to the benefit of our beloved country. Congress is also overwhelmingly Republican, and the President ought to be able to do something with both houses of Congress at his back.

Judge Parker probably ran as well as any other Democrat could have ran. He is an able statesman and patriot and no Democrat need regret having voted for him.

At this time it looks like William Jennings Bryan is the coming man in the Democratic party, but four years may bring many changes.

THE DIVORCE EVIL.

The strongest sermon delivered in Louisville in any of the non-Catholic churches for a long time was that of the Rev. William H. Ramsay at the Unitarian church of the Messiah last Sunday. Rev. Ramsay's subject was divorce. He referred to the suggestion recently made by an English author that the marriage contract ought to be limited to a term of years, and when the old bonds become irksome either party could break the tie at will. This preposterous suggestion was denounced by Mr. Ramsay, who said if it were followed it would put an end to the home. He said, very truly, that the ease with which the marriage tie is severed in many of the States fosters the notion that marriage is only a private contract between two persons. Such ideas, he said, meant the deterioration of the home and the degradation of the State.

The burden of his argument was that the churches, meaning of course the sects outside the Catholic church, should take steps to denounce the freedom with which divorces are granted. It was time the churches were waking up, the speaker said, as there was grave danger to society and to the State.

In closing the reverend gentleman said: "The Roman Catholic church has always maintained a dignified and consistent position on the subjects of marriage and divorce, and has been a bulwark against a floodtide of lawlessness upon these questions. But our Protestant churches have had no settled principles and have maintained no consistent action on the subjects of marriage and divorce. We have done little or nothing to educate the masses upon these vital social problems."

This coming from a preacher who is not orthodox among Protestants is refreshing and ought to wake up some of the members of the Ministerial Association. The Catholic church teaches that marriage is a sacrament and that it is unlawful for a divorced person to marry again. The solution of the evil is in obeying the teachings of the Catholic church. It is simplicity itself.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATIC.

Kentucky remains in the Democratic column and so does Louisville. This city was among the few large municipalities in the country that went Democratic Tuesday. This inspires the local Democracy with hope of complete success in the big municipal election which takes place next November, when a Mayor and city and county officers are to be elected. On Tuesday every candidate on the city and county ticket was elected, notwithstanding the strong fight made by the Republican organization and the liberal use of campaign funds. It was a great victory for Mayor Grainger and the campaign committee, headed by F. Joseph Herrmann.

Swagar Sherley, the able Representative in Congress from this district, was re-elected by a majority of over 1,300. Judge Matt O'Doherty, for the Common Pleas Division of the Circuit Court, Robert Worth Bingham, for County Attorney; Ed Meglery for Magistrate in the Sixth district, and all the nominees for School Trustees were winners. The School Trustees elected were Edward Wolf, John Hoertz, Dr. Beuchel, Bruce Lentz, S. C. Moore and A. H. Brechev. It was a good day's work for the Democracy of this city and county.

Out in the State all the congressional districts went Democratic except the Ninth and Eleventh. James N. Kehoe in the Ninth was defeated by a very small majority.

THE BOND ISSUE.

The proposed bond issue of $3,500,000 for the purpose of building sewers and rebuilding streets was defeated Tuesday on account of failing to receive the requisite two-thirds majority. The vote on the bond question was: For, 17,069; against, 14,434. This is the second time the bond question has been submitted to a vote of the people with a like result. It is evident therefore that the people do not want a bond issue, no matter how badly the city needs sewers. The will of the majority is supreme and must be respected. While we favored the bond issue and believe it would have been a good thing for the community, we are not going to quarrel with those who took a different view of the subject.

Mayor Grainger announces that he will immediately take up the sewer question with the members of the General Council and try to provide sewers in the districts where it is imperative to have drainage to carry off the surplus water after a heavy rainfall, but adequate sewers can not be built without a large outlay of money, and to do this would require an increase in the present tax rate. The Mayor does not favor an increase in the tax rate for 1905, and therefore but few sewers will be built next year. People must wait for sewers until they are in the humor to vote for an issue of bonds to raise money to build them.

IN LIFE AND DEATH.

Worthy Sentiment Expressed by Editor Young E. Allison.

Touching indeed is the story from Washington that Mrs. Philip H. Sheridan refuses to have her illustrious husband buried in the National cemetery at Arlington unless a promise he made that at her death he remains laid beside those of the great soldier whose love she won and whose name she bears. The request is not only reasonable, it ought not to be refused, says the editor of the Louisville Herald. The National cemetery laws stand, as they now read, against its being granted, but these laws should be at the earliest practicable moment revised to permit acceptance of a proposal honorable in the highest degree to American womanhood and wifehood, in thorough accord besides with the chivalric nature of American manhood.

The dead soldier was as great in war as he was fortunate and faithful in love. The qualities that made him a valiant fighter made him also a model husband. Sheridan the soldier can not in history be separated from Sheridan the lover, the homemaker, the idol of a noble American woman. Pitting it is that, their hearts having been united by bonds inseparable, their ashes should mingle in one tomb. This tomb will convey a lesson to coming generations of civic and domestic loyalty, sure to bear golden harvests in manifold achievements and freer virtues. It was the homes of America that made a handful of colonists invincible in the Revolutionary struggle against the most powerful of governments. The soldier is bred at the fireside. It is not the technical training of military school or camp that really makes the fighter. It is the daily lesson of happy home life which instills truth, courage, manfulness into youth.

It is the home that makes country worth fighting for. At his father's fireside, by his mother's knee, the young American learns the worth of courage and the beauty of love. The parental home fills him with finest ideals as to the home he must, to fulfill the mission of an American man, uphold for her whom he is to love incomparably more than self. Philip Henry Sheridan did his part as an American man. He won victories on bloody field, but no triumph of the soldier greater than that of the citizen who wins a woman's heart and rears a happy home. Sheridan, distinguished in war, was also illustrious in peace. His remains should not be separated from those of the wife who has proved as worthy of his fame.

CHRISTMAS DELINEATOR.

The December Delineator, with its many Christmas suggestions and message of good cheer and helpfulness, should be found in every home. It is without doubt the best fashion magazine ever published, and is calculated to interest every one into whose hands it may come. A prominent feature is the beautiful illustrated selection of love songs from the Wagner operas. Besides the short stories there are many special articles on topics relating to women's interests within and without the home.

The marriage of Edward Kelly and Miss Katie May Valla will be quietly solemnized at St. Mary Magdalen's church on Wednesday, November 16. Owing to the recent death of the groom's mother no invitations have been issued.

There is great happiness in the home of Thomas Gannon, 1014 West Oak street, over the arrival of a fine baby boy. Mother and son are doing nicely, while Tom is preparing for a big time for his friends tomorrow, when the little fellow will be christened.

Wedding bells rang merrily the first part of the week. Among the most notable of the many weddings

James Kirwan and Anna Fisher, Daniel Cravens and Mary McGuire, and Andrew Krebs and Mary Ackerly, who are all well known and popular and have the best wishes of legions of friends for lives of unalloyed bliss.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Toes of the shoes are a little more pointed and the heels are a little higher.

The high turnover collar of embroidery is especially pleasing to women with long necks.

Brown and green colorings run through all the gamut of shades and hid fair to hold their prestige throughout the entire season.

Champagne tints, so popular last season, have not entirely been set aside and the pastel shades are holding their own despite all predictions to the contrary.

Among the smart bodices of this season are to be found charming surplice effects, for the surplice is in great vogue. This style of bodice is worn with a very simple belt.

Ribbon appears as trimming on many evening frocks, narrow ribbon having the preference, fashioned into fluttering little bows of countless loops and into the tiniest roses.

One of the prettiest white evening frocks seen thus far is of the softest chiffon tulle, trimmed in deep flounces of lace, headed by garlands of tiny pink rosebuds and forget-me-nots.

In spite of the fact that a woman may dress her hair as she likes and be in good style, there will be some few modes that will be most widely followed, and these are fortunately very generally becoming.

The American women have taken to the collar and stock of transparent lace and preserve in outline all the outlines of the Parisian mode, but in a distinctly American manner. All day dresses are made high in the neck and those who want some other style of collar and stock may please themselves in the matter.

HOPKINS' THEATER.

Patrons of the Hopkins' Theater are promised a great bill for next week, by far the best yet seen at this popular vaudeville play house. The headliner is Harry Rice, the jolly and fascinating mistress of the talking dolls. Others who are sure to please are Happy Jack Gardner in his musical monologue, and Carrie Scott, the pleasing comedy singer. The rest of the olio is high class and will introduce vaudeville stars seen here for the first time, the whole concluding with a new series of moving pictures on the biograph.

BUCKINGHAM.

Two musical satires, said to be a merry melange of nonsense, thoroughly entertaining and never offensive, will be features of next week's bill at the Buckingham. They will be presented by the Merry Maidens Company, headed by jolly Nellie Haudy and supported by a big company, including the famous gymnasts, the Flying Rathbouns. The olio is a splendid one and will please lovers of first-class vaudeville. The engagement will be for the entire week with the usual matinees.

FEEL HIS LOSS.

The sympathy of the people of Nelson county goes out to Joe Barry, of the New Haven Echo, and his wife, who last week sustained the loss of their bright and handsome little son Bernard, whose death was sudden and unexpected. The little fellow was a general favorite, and the sorrow felt was manifest at the funeral, when St. Catherine's church was thronged with sympathizing friends of the bereaved parents, to whom we tender our heartfelt condolence.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. John J. Riley and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to pallbearers, donors of flowers and the Rev. Fathers Kerran and Lawler, also Col. Sebastian Gunther, Chief of Police, members and officers of the Sixth district police station, and all other brother officers, members of Division 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, and Liberty Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, and all those who so kindly assisted them in their late bereavement.

BETTER THINGS

Predicted For the Flourishing Catholic Woman's Club.

Members and friends of the club will be pleased to know that the excellent showing of all previous months was surpassed by that of October, and the Board of Directors feel that the club is now in a prosperous condition and may look for better things in the future.

Though the expense account was unusually large last month, the Treasurer showed a neat balance in bank, with a good stock of merchandise on hand with which to begin November. General satisfaction with the dining room is expressed by its patrons, and there was served during the month 9,762 paid lunches.

Fifty-five new members and forty-eight renewals was the good work done by the Membership Committee, which hopes to do much better between now and January, and in this great Catholic city, with so many well-wishers of all good and worthy undertakings, they are sure to succeed.

A representative of the committee is always at the club house for convenience of any who wish to register for membership.

Mrs. Kate Shelly Newman and Mrs. T. B. Leahy were elected members of the Board of Directors at the board meeting last Monday afternoon, to succeed Mrs. Thomas Keenan and Mrs. H. Klapheke, who resigned on account of house duties.

Of all the monthly socials held at the club house the one on last Thursday was the most successful.

The Library Committee extends thanks to Miss Tillie Dreisman and Charles H. Uhrig for books they have kindly donated.

Early Christmas shoppers are invited to inspect the handsome hand-made articles on sale in the exchange at very reasonable prices.

Girls desiring situations have only to call upon Mrs. Weidling, of the employment bureau, to secure just what they want.

TEN YEARS OLD.

Printing Pressmen Anniversary Celebration at Liederkranz Hall.

Monday night at Liederkranz Hall the Louisville Printing Pressmen's Union will hold its tenth anniversary celebration and ball, and the opinion seems universal that the affair will outshine anything given here this season. The hall will be tastefully decorated and brilliant with lights, and the proceedings of the evening will be conducted in harmony with the highest ideals. Under the careful management of Chairman Koertner and his fifteen assistants, who have heretofore worked shy and well for everything connected with their union, it is intended to make their anniversary a memorable one. A large number of invitations have been issued, and the gathering promises to be select as well as representative. A splendid programme has been arranged, which includes all the late dance music. The pressmen of this city are all men of social standing and will give their friends a reception so cordial and hearty that it will long remain a pleasant memory.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

The literary and musical entertainment to be given by Trinity Council next Wednesday night at the club house will draw a large audience, as an excellent programme has been arranged. Solos will be rendered by Misses Dolly Burns, Bee Mullarkey, Josephine Hoetz, and Messrs. James Koche, Albert Metzger and James McGill. Recitations will be given by Louis Steule and John J. Flynn, and an address by Edward J. McDermott.

FATHER ZABLER BETTER.

The Rev. Monsignor Zabler, of St. Martin's church, is home from Germany, where he has been some time for his health, which is greatly improved. Upon his arrival his parishioners began arranging a hearty welcome for him. Yesterday the children met him in the school hall and tendered their greetings, and later their parents will give Father Zabler a rousing reception.

NONPAREIL'S THANKSGIVING.

The Thanksgiving dance to be given at the New Athletic Club by the Nonpareil Club promises to be among the most notable society events of the season. There has been a generous response to the large number of invitations issued. Special and new music will be introduced and the ball room will be elaborately decorated. The Nonpareil is now the leading social club of Louisville.

EDUCATION OF WOMEN.

The higher education of women is one of the many subjects discussed freely at the present time, and varying opinions are advanced regarding it. Education will never prevent a woman from performing well the duties of wifehood and motherhood if her life work is in the home. If it is not, as is sometimes the case, she will not properly fulfill that mission under any conditions. To be a companion and helper for enlightened and intelligent American citizens a woman must be educated, and it is only the men who are unable or unwilling to keep pace with her that want to see her held down to their level.

EDUCATION.

Never before in all the history of the world was there a time when the call for educated men, for trained men, for men of brains and ability and balance, was so urgent as it is today. It will be increasingly so as the days go on. The man of today who does not educate his children to the highest extent of his ability is condemning them to levels of mediocrity in the generation to succeed him.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Stanton, mother of Thomas and Katie Stanton, took place Monday morning from St. Cecilia's. Born eighty-two years ago, she was one of the oldest members of St. Cecilia's congregation, where in other years she was prominent in church and social circles.

The news of the death of Edward Bruch, son of Antou Bruch, 1025 Third street, spread a gloom over his wide circle of friends Tuesday morning. He was in his eighteenth year and the hope of his parents. The funeral was held Thursday morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

It was with feelings of sincere regret that the many friends and relatives learned of the death of Mrs. Caroline Shaughnessy, which occurred Tuesday night at her home, 1053 East St. Catherine street. She was the beloved wife of Thomas Shaughnessy and was a young woman of pleasant disposition and many fine traits of character. The funeral took place Thursday morning from St. John's church.

Mrs. Julia O'Brien, eighty-five years of age, died Monday afternoon at the home of her son, John O'Brien, 2513 Eighteenth street. She was born in Ireland, but came to America and lived in New York till the death of her husband, Michael O'Brien, twelve years ago, when she moved here to reside with her son. After the funeral services the remains were taken to New York and laid beside those of her husband.

LONG-MATEER.

Well Known Young Louisville Couple Married in Chicago.

Miss Virginia McAteer and Mr. Charles R. Long, Jr., of Louisville, were married at the rectory of St. Mary's church, Michigan avenue, Chicago, on Monday. The marriage was a surprise to their friends in Louisville, though the bride's mother was present at the ceremony. Miss McAteer had been visiting in Chicago for a month with her mother, and Mr. Long only recently went there on business. At present the happy couple at the Auditorium Annex in Chicago, but will be at home at the Galt House after November 15.

The bride is the charming daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John McAteer. She is a lovely young woman, and Mr. Long is fortunate in securing so beautiful a bride. Mr. Long is a son of Charles R. Long, President of the Louisville Water Company. He is a prosperous young business man and is engaged in the manufacture of paints and is also Secretary of the American Standard Asphalt Company.

COLOGNE CATHEDRAL

A Sketch of the Wonderful Catholic Cathedral in Germany.

In the Dublin Freeman Mr. P. L. Connellan has been devoting attention to the Cathedral of Cologne and its statues. He says:

"The great church of Catholic Germany is the Cathedral of Cologne. When the city was in its glory and its merchants were distinguished for their wealth the foundation stone of the Cathedral was laid. A century later a king of England raised money in Cologne for his wars with France. In 1340 King Edward III. pawned all his queen's jewels, even to her crown, wrote the late Ilungerford Pollen, to raise money for his French wars from the merchants of Flanders. He had pawned this crown the year before at Cologne for $12,500, till his subjects sent 30,000 packs of wool up the Rhine to redeem it. This furnishes an indication of the wealth of Cologne. This grand Cathedral is of the early pointed style of architecture known as Gothic. To the cloisters of the convent once belonging to the church fled the victim of Richelieu—the unfortunate and ambitious Mary de Medici. It is the largest Gothic edifice in the world. No one knows for certain who was the marvelous genius who designed it. Popular fancy has, in the form of legends, settled this question to its own satisfaction, and while one of these legends attributes the design to heavenly inspiration, the other associates it with diabolical agency."

The Cathedral of Cologne was built to enshrine the remains of the three kings who, led by the star which appeared in the East at the time of the birth of Christ, came to Bethlehem to adore the King of the Jews. The two great towers that rise in the front of the building reach the enormous height of 525 feet—the same as the length of the Cathedral itself.

PLANTS IN THE HOME.

A man who knows something of plants and flowers gave this advice to a woman who complained that she could not raise any kind of a plant, although she was always patronizing the florist and investing in ferns and palms: "I'll tell you what may be the matter. The plants you buy have only just been repotted or transplanted. They look sturdy in the florist's shop, but if he were to keep them in the window a day or so they would droop and die, too. What they need is just darkness and coolness, not heat and light. Give them a chance in some cool, dark place to sink their roots into the soil and become accustomed to the new earth and the new pot. Also try the plan of putting palms and ferns in the cellar once in awhile to give them a rest. They need it just as much as we do at times."

BLANKETS.

Blankets can be beautifully washed in cold water and borax, although I know I am challenging the questioning wrath of many a housewife by saying cold instead of hot water. But experience is an unmitigated and not to be evaded teacher. Just try my way and see if it is not preferable to toiling over tubs of steam. Use a tablespoonful of powder of borax to each pile of water. Rub the blankets thoroughly, using a little good soap on every soiled place. Rinse well and wring by the edge in the sun. They are as soft as new when dry.

STARVATION IN ENGLAND.

At a late meeting of the City Council of Manchester, England, it was announced that owing to the hard times and depression in the cotton industries, between forty and fifty thousand people in the poorer parts of the city were on the verge of starvation. Similar conditions prevail in London and other large cities of the United Kingdom, where the winter is expected to be one of the hardest in many years for the poorer classes.

THE BOY.

Don't snub a boy because of his physical disability. Milton was blind. Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker. Don't snub a boy because of his dullness in lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books. Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name. Don't snub any boy, not alone because some day he may outstrip you in the race of life, but it is neither kind nor right nor Christian.

J. BACON & SONS
Fall Shirt Waists

Our second floor is apparently alive with the novel and chic styles of the season. The peculiarities of our styles are that they are commonsensical, yet with enough distinct features to class them by themselves. Every one is of a sterling quality, meriting the consideration of those who wish to have style combined with service. To quote prices like the following on wearables absolutely needed for the season, is a credit to the seller and a wonderful gain to the purchaser.

One-Third Off on Sample Waists

Their being handled a little by the manufacturer's representative does not detract the least from their beauty and style elegance. It brings them to you at a third less the actual price. The lot comprises flannel, silk and albatross waists; medium sizes mostly. Were they put up in a fresh box no one could detect them from being fresh, direct from the maker.

$1.24 For Flannel Waists. A good quality of Flannel at that, finished with small tucks and one-quarter with side plait; hemstitching and piping; all the seasonable and desirable colors represented in the lot we compare them with any at $1.48.

$1.98 For Flannel Waists made of a fine twilled Flannel; soft and all wool; the styles are too numerous to depict an exact illustration; every color that will afford a good contrast with your new skirt or suit; priced remarkably for its lowness.

Albatross Waists Only $1.48

We had our eyes open when we purchased this number. It's undoubtedly the best value that this great store has been able to offer at this season of the year. Waists are made with tucked front, back and sleeves, pearl button trimmed, in the choice shades. If we priced them according to their value you would have to pay $1.98.

$1.98 For Albatross Waists. Ladies' soft finish Albatross Waists; all wool and easily sheds lint; front of waist is inserted with embroidery; side plait to form yoke; tucked back, fancy stock; all beautiful colorings; an unusually good value.

$2.98 For Taffeta Waists. The silk is a rather heavy quality, not generally made up in this price waist; fancy tucked front and back; fancy stock; colors are the pretty fall shades, brown, navy, white, champagne and black.

gainsaying. No wonder that it should be so, for his services and sacrifices on behalf of his native land are innumerable. His long and exhaustive address to the people of Cork, however, bodes no good for the national cause. He attacked the Irish party and its policy. He declared he would be no party to faction, yet his arraignment of the policy adopted by the duly elected representatives of the people can scarcely lead to anything but dissension.

FATHER KELLY HOME.

Rev. John B. Kelly, rector of Holy Trinity church in New Albany, has returned home and is actively attending to his duties once more. Father Kelly has not been in robust health for some time and two months ago went to Northern Michigan. Afterward he went to Mt. Clemens and then to Canada. In the latter place he improved. For a time this summer he was seriously ill, but his pluck pulled him through and now he is in fair health. Father Kelly's friends in New Albany of all denominations are glad that he is back again.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Thomas Kennedy, one of the old guard, was present and made a good talk for the good of Division 3 and the order Monday night.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Duluth held a reception Wednesday night, when they held their first meeting in the new Cathedral Hall.

Richard Murphy and Michael Dugan, of Division 3, who have been sick, are reported making progress toward complete recovery.

Officers and members of Division 3 feel proud of their degree team, which was highly complimented for the excellence of its work.

Nominations for all the divisions are now in order. Division 3 will be the first to name its candidates. President Quinn wants all present at the next meeting.

The attendance at the meeting of Division 3 Monday night was above the average and was interesting from start to finish. The question of consolidation was brought up and defeated.

Among those who take interest in Hibernian affairs none are more zealous than John Morris, of Division 3. His friends want him to run for one of the offices, which would be equivalent to an election.

Members of Division 2 have arranged for a pleasant evening for those who attend their euchre next Friday night. The prizes to be awarded are many and handsome. After the games there will be an hour devoted to vocal and instrumental music.

Owing to the excitement and interest in the election only a small number of members came to attend the meeting of Division 1 on Tuesday night. After paying their dues to Secretary Keenan they left to hear the returns and therefore no business was transacted.

Next Wednesday the Ladies' Auxiliary hold their regular monthly business meeting. Miss Cavanaugh, the President, and Miss Ella O'Connell, the Secretary, will have some important information for the members, and the young ladies of the Emerald Club promise a report that will awaken interest and lead to a series of winter socials.

The euchre given by Division 4 at Hibernia Hall was a decided social success. There was a splendid gathering of men and women and the games were warmly contested, as the prizes were numerous and valuable. Next Friday night the players and their friends will be the guests of Division 2, which has invited all Hibernians to what they say will be the banner card party of the season.

CASINO DRAMATIC CLUB.

Tomorrow evening at St. Martin's Hall, on Shelby street, the Casino Dramatic Club will give its first performance of the season. This club has now been in existence for seventeen years and has always drawn large crowds to every performance. Some of the original members of the cast will take part in the performance of Sunday evening. During the past year the Casino Club has reproduced many plays that have been seen on the professional stage and the performances have always been very good. The one to be rendered Sunday evening will be "Forced to War," a thrilling melodrama, in which some of the incidents of the late civil war are described. The parts are in available hands and the performance will undoubtedly prove a great success. Miss Mayne Ernst and Martin Roth will take the leading parts. Rev. P. Berresheim is stage manager and George Hellenthal is assistant. Louis P. Steurle, a well known young man of the East End and a promising young lawyer, is the President of the club; Frank Eiling, Vice President; B. Mueller, Secretary, and A. Redelbeger, Treasurer.

MACAULEY'S.

Dockstader's minstrels are announced as next week's attraction at Macauley's Theater. The company is a strong one and everywhere has played to crowded houses. This will be the last minstrel show to appear here for a long time.
